
Alaska

Registration Status: The Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing staffs the geology program. Geologist certification in Alaska is based solely upon the registration requirements of the American Institute of Professional Geologists. Certifications have no expiration date and require no renewal fees. Geologists who practice independently, on a contract basis, must obtain an Alaska Business License.

Effective Date: 1980

Exemptions: None

ASBOG[®] Membership: No

Update:

State Contact:

Name: Andy Khmelev
Title: Licensing Examiner
Address: Geology Section
DCCED, CBPL
P. O. Box 110806
Juneau, AK 99811-0806

Phone: (907) 465-8444
Fax: (907) 465-2974
E-mail: professionalgeologists@alaska.gov
Web site:

www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/cbpl/ProfessionalLicensing/ProfessionalGeologists.aspx

Board Composition:

Requirements: AIPG Certification

Education:

Experience:

Examination:

Continuing Education: Certification is permanent; i.e., does not need to be renewed.

Grandfathering:

Cooperative Licensure - (Comity/Reciprocity):

Registrant Count: PGs: 748

Information Updated: September 7, 2018
